'The most developed arts
scene outside London'

Glasgow is a city where the art being made is ambitious, risk-taking and internationally significant.

The festival provides a unique platform, combining a strong interwoven offer of commissions and exhibitions by both artists living locally and internationally, in both large-scale and familiar public venues as well as smaller less conventional sites.

It is widely acknowledged that GI has made a significant contribution to Glasgow's reputation as a leading city of contemporary art outside of London.

Why support Glasgow International

In the first seven editions of Glasgow International we have:

- ▶ Supported over 800 artists.
- ▶ Commissioned over 70 artists to create new work.

The Times ▶

'A great place to get a sense of the cutting edge'

- ▶ Supported 73 galleries, artist led spaces and curators to present work.
- ▶ Created 350 shows.
- ▶ Attracted nearly 800k visitors.
- ▶ Kept more than 90% of the festival completely free to attend.

Your support will help us:

- ▶ Commission new work and illuminate Glasgow with a vibrancy and energy.
- ▶ Advocate and champion the artistic community in Glasgow and, more widely, the contemporary art sector in Scotland and across the UK.
- ▶ Attract visitors and professionals to the city, making a significant contribution to economic growth, civic pride, community cohesion and wellbeing.

- ▶ Be a catalyst for artistic career development at multiple levels, from new graduates to Turner Prize winning artists.
- ▶ Offer an inclusive and collegiate platform for showcasing the best of the city's artistic talent presenting their work side-by-side with their international peers.

Whether supporting from within Scotland, or internationally, your assistance directly contributes to supporting the work of artists, and their unique insight into the world in which we live.

We very much value and appreciate your support.

With thanks,

Richard Parry
Director, Glasgow International

About Glasgow International

Glasgow International is Scotland's largest festival for contemporary art, taking place over three weeks every two years across the city of Glasgow. The festival draws on the city's strengths as a vibrant and distinctive centre of production and display of contemporary art.

In light of the era-defining changes facing the world today, we believe that GI - and the artists, curators and organisations that we work with - is one of the most powerful spaces in which to respond to the new context in which we now find ourselves. We are proud to support, encourage and profile the artistic community as they seek to challenge, inform and provoke debate.

GI is a truly unique project in the European cultural calendar. It was established in 2005 in response to a lack of visible and high profile representation of the contemporary art sector, despite Glasgow being well known for producing some of the UK's best contemporary visual artists.
